

Community Opens New Teen Center Free Food For Delighted Youngsters

NEWLY DECORATED teen center on South Main St. was the first of the Belle Glade Hotel. Mrs. J. McWhorter, who has spruced up the front with a bit of teen decor. The success of opening night proves the need for such a project.

Mrs. Charlie and Mrs. Jack carried Karriks and Jack Kaufman to a party Saturday night where the boys bent their elbows to the point of exhaustion opening Coca-Cola, Pepsi and Grapette in between dishing out ice cream and cookies to some 250 Belle Glade teenagers at the new Teenage Center on south Main street in the Joe Baker building.

Tea and Sues are among those mothers who say "Something should be done" about the lack of teenage recreation facilities. Tea and Sues are also full of imagination, have the unbounded energy to consummate practically some of these imaginings, and the enthusiastic salesmanship to intrigue other parents in joining an effort to "do something" for the benefit of the youngsters.

Dr. Joe Baker easily "got the idea" of the value of a properly operated Teenage Center and gave the idea substance by donating the use of the large dining room in the Belle Glade Hotel building, a music box with records was delivered to the room by the Glades Music Co.; so the Center was in business.

However the "decor" of the quarters didn't meet the aesthetic appreciation of the ladies, so a group of teenagers were drafted and the ladies cleaned, painted and decorated in the room. Success to this stage encouraged the ladies to suggest an enthusiastic willingness to receive donations in the shape of Christmas from local merchants. They gave away their wares, Coca-Cola, Pepsi

Cola and Grapette by the distributors, a cake by Holsum and ice cream by Altar were supplemented by donations from the Cottage Grill and cookies from Manager Prescott of Kwik-Chik. Napkins were the gift of George Crews, ice by Hildegarde and Herring; the spotlights on the front of the building were provided by Seminole State. Our Florists - Kirchman and Crech each provided a beautiful floral piece which at the request of the teenagers.

Future plans include a membership card for each teenager, which will be subject to withdrawal by the committee for violation of the rules. Parents are asked to register themselves for duty as chaperones and to interest themselves in its operation to the extent of facilitating the trips to and from the Friday and Saturday night affairs.

The center will open at 7:30 on these two nights and close at 11 p. m. with Friday night reserved for the seventh and eighth graders. Ninth through twelfth graders may come Saturday night.

It is felt that this offers teenagers of the community a place of their own for good clean fun under proper supervision and that it will be a real tonic for the morale of the community. Mrs. M. E. Kadow joined the original three early in the effort and bolstered the enthusiasm and hard work necessary to see the project through its "opening night" as a chaperone along with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Glade. Driver Who Struck 13-Year Old Is Connected To Several Other Crimes

County lawmen and Belle Glade police started to investigate an accident Thursday night and ended up with a full house of juveniles and two older youths involved in a wholesale stealing operation. How complex the operation and just how much of what was stolen is still undetermined, officers stated.

About 7 p. m. Thursday five youths speeding toward the lake on SR 717 about a mile from SR 715 struck 13-year old George McGowan, Belle Glade, as he returned from a fishing jaunt with his brother, Jimmy, 14, and friend, Cecil Luke, 13.

George, seriously injured, was taken to Belle Glade Memorial Hospital but Friday was removed to a West Palm Beach hospital for operation procedure. He has remained unconscious since the accident. The other two boys were unhurt.

Driver of the car was identified as George Brown, 18, 1958, center, who turned around and came back to the point where the auto struck the boy. The boy, attempted to take the boy to a doctor. They got as far as West's store at Chosen and called for help. Belle Glade police answered the call.

Routine investigation of the accident disclosed certain items involved have been stolen. After a search warrant was obtained, officers discovered several items in the car. After further questioning, officers charged Brown with one count of breaking and entering to commit a felony, Clarence Everson, 22, was charged with petty larceny.

Deputy Sheriff Boyd Newman and the questioning Ralph Kirk said the questioning determined that a large number of items stolen from nearby farms could be blamed on Brown who apparently was ring leader of the group of at least five other juveniles.

Additional charges were not filed against Brown pending the recovery of the stolen items. Bids Due For SRD Work
The State Road Department will receive bids on two reurfacing jobs for highways in the Glades county commission, on Tuesday, Monday.

Commissioner Paul Rardin, Canal Point, said the date for accepting bids has been set for Jan. 29 and that the projects were where reurfacing was given and one-half stretch of SR 715 from Pahokee south to SR 15 mile to an FEC RR crossing.

Solons' Clinic Dates Are Set

Palm Beach County Legislative delegation composed of State Senator F. O. Dickinson, Representatives Ralph Blank, Jr. and Emmett S. Roberts, have announced the schedule for countywide legislative clinics as follows:

Feb. 20 - 9:30 a. m. Lake Worth City Hall.
Feb. 20 - 10:00 a. m. County Commission Room West Palm Beach City Hall.
Mar. 6 - 1:30 p. m. Riviera Beach City Hall.

The legislative delegations announced that they will continue the policy that no local bills will be introduced in the forthcoming legislature that have not been presented at one of the clinics. They urge that everything of public concern be brought before the clinics.

The purpose of these legislative clinics is to give the citizens an opportunity to express their opinion on matters which they may consider or which they wish to see handled in the 1959 Legislature.

After the last clinic, the delegations will be in session in local bills unless the necessity arises through an emergency session, affecting in some way the public interest in the county.

The legislators stressed that the meetings were open to the public and press representatives.

Produce Not Hurt By Cooler Weather

Some danger point temperatures felt in the Glades area resulted in some scattered frost Jan. 10-11-12 but reports indicated that little damage was done to crops here. Some cabbage, young corn and radishes received setbacks.

Celery, cabbage and potatoes fed the volume of shipments the past week. Some planted beans should be ready within two weeks. Corn is declining.

Temperatures Jan. 10 ranged 33-48 with the coldest points away from the lake. Jan. 11 saw the low of 28 with moderate to heavy frost and Jan. 12 saw a low of 30 with frost reported on the southeast and east side of the lake. No frost danger through Friday.

"Give Us Back Our Street" Neighbors Ask Developer

A special session of the Belle Glade City Commission was called Monday at 1 p. m. to discuss the construction of a $115,000 shopping center on W. Avenue A at N. W. 2nd St. after city officials had heard numerous complaints that the new building would create an eye sore, make an ugly cut of N. W. 2nd St. and lower property values in addition to creating a traffic hazard and make truck unloading in a nearby alley impractical.

These charges were presented by adjoining property owners, councilmen and interested citizenry. The council summoned Alex Karriks, representative of the center's builder, to listen to various arguments about the construction.

Leading off, Councilman Paul Davidson asked proper if the builder would consider cutting off nearly 10 feet of the east side of the building to produce a more pleasing view of the street.

Karriks replied that such a proposal was entirely out of the question since such a change would cost the builder and owner thousands of dollars. Besides that, the stores in the center would be lost and the cost of exact size, not variations of length and widths that would ruin the same area.

To each of the other charges Karriks replied: The structure was being built in accordance with city ordinances; there would be enough room for traffic if there were no parking on Second St.; a large parking lot would more than compensate for lost space in the center.

He said plans were created to allow incoming truck traffic to use the parking lot access to the north alley behind Area A if space did not permit entry from N. W. 3rd St., thereby eliminating a problem there.

About the building jutting farther east than the H. C. Pence store across the street, Karriks said buildings on streets all over the country were being built like that without loss of revenue or property values.

It was learned that N. W. 2nd (Continued on Page Eight)

Postal Receipts Show $8,000 Rise For Fiscal Year

Postal receipts for the first two report periods for fiscal 1959 which began on June 28, 1958 and ended on January 9, 1959, were $38,842.31, an increase of $8,812.36 over the same period last year, said George P. Farrell, local postmaster. This amount included the increase in postage rates which went into effect August 1, added the postmaster, so that the adjusted receipts for the two report periods were slightly less than the figure reported.

Receipts for the calendar year 1958, adjusted to account for the increase in postage rates, were $1,546.08, compared to $1,473 in 1957, a 5% increase for the year said Farrell. "When you consider the fact that the extreme cold weather and heavy rains started the first part of the year materially offset any gains in the office and which accounted for a 7.3% loss for the first six months of the year, it is particularly gratifying that we have made up the loss and then accounted for a 13.6% net increase for the year," Farrell said.

In commenting on the impact of the cold weather, Farrell said that the office has had to have a group of at least five other juveniles.

Mounts' Annual Ag Report Good

A glowing picture of Palm Beach County's growing cattle raising and farming activities was painted last week by County Agent M. U. Mounts in his annual report to the county commission.

Mounts, a long time employee of the county, said in the past 25 years vast changes have transpired in all fields of agriculture. He said years ago the average farm contained about 40 acres and today the farms average more than 600 acres each.

In the meantime there has been little change in the population of the farmers.

The county agent said the type and quality of the farming industry has been improved and by comparison in 1935, only 1,000 acres were planted in vegetables and last year the mark soared to 96,000 acres.

At the present time, he said, more than 100,000 acres have been turned into improved pasture lands to take care of the county's growing beef raising and dairy industry.

He also pointed out that the sale of ornamental plants and cut flowers which stood at about $1 million several years ago, last year brought in from $7 to $8 million.

BIBLE

GOD'S GREAT BOOK

By Horace Hartwell

The book of all books is the Bible. It is a treasure for the poor, a solace for the sick, a guide for the lost and hope for the dying. It is the basis of the Christian religion and worth innumerable more than any other book in the world than all other books combined.

The Bible is God's word. It is God-breathed. It is a revelation of God, of God's Son, of God's purpose, of God's plan to save lost men. In all the world there is no literature as beautiful, as sublime, as helpful to wayward men as the Bible. The fact that it has withstood the fearful onslaughts of countless foes during the centuries and is today the most widely read and the most deeply loved of all books is proof positive of its nobility and divinity of the book. Let those who criticize it account for its amazing vitality. Let those who ridicule it write a better one, if they can! Since Nice to know we can count on Butch for another two years of eligibility.

Ronald Hudspeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hudspeth, Indian Mound, made his mark in high school basketball, Jan. 6 at Okeechobee.

A 16-year-old junior, he has sandy colored hair, blue eyes and holds 140 pounds on his 5' 11" frame.

JOB & WORKER

By J. W. Mooley, Jr. Manager Florida State Employment Service Belle Glade, Fla.

A Few pointers... If you have a job here are a few pointers on how to keep it. It is important to know what you are expected to do, how it is to be done, when it is to be done and where it is to be done. Most jobs that are lost are lost because of lack of knowledge, not the lack of ability.

Start It... When you have a job to do, don't start it half-heartedly; put it and think how difficult it is. Don't start it. Don't let it tomorrow, start it. Don't look for someone else to do it, start it. It is important to know what you are expected to do, how it is to be done, when it is to be done and where it is to be done. Most jobs that are lost are lost because of lack of knowledge, not the lack of ability.

Wrestlers Please Armory Crowd Here

Belle Glade wrestling fans appeared well pleased with the Friday night card at the National Guard Armory presented by promoter Al Ritchie as they alternately booed and cheered their favorites of the moment to victory.

Scotty Williams, 215, took two of three falls from Chris Belk, 212, in the opener. Barefoot-Alex Regan took two of three falls from Pat Cherry in the co-feature. Miss Regan needed seven minutes to nail Pat with a body press. She scrambled back after a short break to smash Pat to the canvas in less than 30 seconds with a modified body press to win the second fall.

In the main event Mohawk Indian Don Eagle, 222, entertained the crowd with authentic Indian costumes, trickery and championship style as he took two of three falls from bad man Jack Vansky in 44 minutes.

In 20 minutes the big Iron crushed Vansky with what Referee Angelo Martinielli termed an "Indian Death Lock." Five and a half minutes later musclemann Jack realigned. It was 13 minutes later that Don electrified the crowd with an impromptu war dance and massacre of the evil Vansky. Vansky took time out from his ring antics to tease out from his ring with muscle-ripping displays and a short tussle with Don's father at ring side.

"Chief" War Eagle's toe trip of Vansky and accompanying remarks pleased the armory crowd. Another top-notch card is set for this week.
